32ND ANNUAL
RECYCLING CONFERENCE
GEORGIA RECYCLING COALITION

Recycling at a Crossroad: The Path Forward

Make plans to join us for GRC's 32nd Annual Conference, Trade Show and Membership Meeting on October 22-25, 2023 at the King & Prince located on St. Simons Island. This year's conference will focus on successes, challenges, and the path forward for growing and sustaining recycling in Georgia.

The annual GRC conference is an opportunity for anyone in the recycling and sustainable materials management industries to connect, learn what's on the horizon, and leave refreshed and motivated.

GRC members received reduced conference registration rate. Not a member? Join today.

Keynote Speaker

We are thrilled to announce Keefe Harrison as the opening Keynote Speaker. Keefe is the founder and the CEO of The Recycling Partnership, a national nonprofit dedicated to protecting the planet by fixing recycling and activating a circular economy in the U.S. An international speaker, media pundit, and environmental author, Keefe is a 22-year veteran of the space, dedicated to engaging companies in making measurable, lasting change. Under her leadership, The Partnership has grown significantly since its founding in 2014 and has transformed $95 million of investment from over 80 funding partners into $241 million in value creation, reaching over one million households and diverting over 770 million incremental pounds of recyclables from landfills.
