

2024 Power of Partnership conference Better Together Statement

- GRC and SWANA Georgia expect conference attendees to be respectful, during sessions and during the entirety of the conference. You represent yourselves, your organization or business, and this conference.
- GRC and SWANA Georgia encourage diversity, equity, and inclusion. We grow and enhance our industry and goals as we gain representation from a variety of ages, genders, races, cultures, and backgrounds. Everyone should feel welcome at our conference and within our respective organizations.
- If you observe inappropriate behavior in or around our conference, please communicate this with conference leadership within GRC and/or SWANA Georgia, so we may best address the issue.
